Lawrence County Chamber of Commerce

State Collaborative On Reforming Education

Tennessee SCORE, chaired by former U.S. Senator Bill Frist is a citizen-led, nonpartisan initiative that brings together people from all 95 counties to look at best practices. The goal is to jump-start long-term educational change that can develop an environment to prepare students for a career or college when they graduate from high school. A call-to-action campaign is underway in which anyone can contribute to the statewide conversation on how to improve the state's educational system. To share thoughts, ideas or to explain programs that is working or not-working for your children, visit the Tennessee Score web site at www.tennesseescore.org.
