CSCC Classes on Entrepreneurship

Columbia State Community College and the South Central Tennessee Workforce Alliance will offer a series of Entrepreneurship Training Classes beginning this fall. Topics to be covered are Which Business to Start, Marketing, Legal Structure, Accounting for Small Business, Cash Flow, Pricing of Products or Services, Challenges of Managing a Small Business, How to Write a Business Plan and coaching on how to improve your business plan. It is important the instructors be successful entrepreneurs, professionals, consultants, attorneys and CPA's. Presenters will be financial compensated. If you are interested in being a presenter, contact Ron Beck at Columbia State in Columbia at 931-540-1121.

Chancellor Named to SEDC Board

The Southern Economic Development Council (SEDC), the oldest and largest regional economic development association in North America, has announced Chad Chancellor as the Tennessee state alternate director to serve on the SEDC Board. He is one of two from Tennessee and will serve a two-year term beginning in January. SEDC is a 900 plus member non-profit organization composed of a broad cross-section of active and influential industrial and economic developers. The 17-state region includes Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, District of Columbia, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia.

The Lawrence County Public Library will hold a used book sale beginning with a pre-view sale Friday, September 11th from 6:00 until 8:00pm. Admission is $5.00, free to Friends of the Library. The sale will continue through Sept. 26th.

The second annual 9/11 Memorial Walk will be held September 11th at 6:00pm. The walk will begin at Rotary Park with events along the way to the Lawrenceburg Square. For more information call Spunky Guess at 931-629-1857.

American Cellular will host a free "Blackberry" Seminar, September 15 at 6:30pm at the store located at 2134 N. Locust Avenue in Lawrenceburg. To RSVP call 931-424-3167.
